LIGHTS. CAMERA. AUCTION.

A Special Fundraising Fashion Show for Family Matters of Greater Washington

Thursday, November 15, 2018 | 6:00pm-9:00pm | MGM National Harbor

Join Family Matters of Greater Washington (FMGW) for a spectacular dinner and fashion show, "Lights, Camera, Action," to be held on Thursday evening, November 15 at the MGM National Harbor's Grand Ballroom. This special fundraising fashion show will feature local celebrities and area officials modeling the latest business attire by various designers, as well as a silent auction offering up special merchandise, donated services, and other goodies from businesses from the DC-Metro area.

This event will announce the launching of a brand new program that assists local young men and women to be prepared for entry and sustainability into the workforce.

FMGW, the largest and oldest nationally accredited social service organizations in the District of Columbia, has been on the forefront of improving the lives of those in need in the region.

A variety of sponsorship packages and individual tickets are available for this event.
