Friday, March 29, 2019 | 3:00 PM – 7:00 PM

Family Matters is gearing up for our next “D4D” event! Set for Friday, March 29, 2019, 3-7pm at the FMGW’s offices in Washington, DC, our popular “Pop-Up Prom Boutique” offers low-income teens prom wear — new or gently-worn gowns or suits and accessories — at no cost! Our program provides local teens access to beautiful evening attire and make-up services — everything it takes to ensure that their prom night is a memorable experience as possible.

Ways to Participate in the 2019 D4D Program:

1. Donate new or gently-worn Evening Gowns, Tuxedos or Dark Suits, Accessories, and Handbags
2. Donate Services, such as Make-Up Artists, Hairstylists/Barbers, florists
3. Sponsor our 2019 Pop-up Boutique and Men’s Shop
4. Make a Cash Donation
5. Host an Office Fundraiser

We’re pleased to announce that in 2019 FMGW will partner with “Sunni in the City,” a radio host at WPGC – 95.5 FM. Sunni has emceed ‘The Prom Beauty’ event for many years.
